FRONT-COVER ROSE

MRS. PAUL R. BOSLEY. Pat. 441

A new yellow Rose made to order for the exhibitor. It has form, color, substance, heavy foliage and large high-centered blooms on straight stems. It outsells by twice any yellow Rose we have ever grown.

GRANDE DUCHESSE
CHARLOTTE

When we first moved the nursery to Mentor it was so very small and humble.

So also was our oldest boy Paul, small—it was his first year in school but now his mother and I wear a pin with a blue star for him.

Our nursery has grown just like our four children. My wife is an enthusiastic nurserywoman and it is only fitting that the finest yellow rose I have ever grown should be named Mrs. Paul R. Bosley.

You are cordially invited to visit our nursery and see the plants in bloom like those described and many new ones beside.

We are located on U.S. Rt. 20 and Greyhound buses stop at our door.

Dark evergreen leaves and bright red berries; rich in Christmas tradition. Holly has so many landscape uses that every home-owner can surely have enough from which to cut his Christmas branches. A Holly by your door is a token of hospitality. It also makes a perfect clipped hedge that boy or dog will never violate. Or, give it space and feed it well for a specimen. Some place nearby there must be a male tree, a companion for the berry-bearing female trees. You must have at least one pair.

AZALEAS

"Queen of Flowering Shrubs"

Although Rhododendrons are termed the "King of Flowering Shrubs," Azaleas are called the "Queen." Azaleas are most effective when planted in groups of three or more. They bloom best in full sun, although Azalea Kempferi does very well in partial shade. Planting directions with every order.

KEMPFERI HYBRIDS

Red has been added to Azaleas with the Kempferi blood. Hybridizing of them has added hardiness. We are growing only the hybrids that survived our record winter of 1933-34. Demand the dependable ones by name.

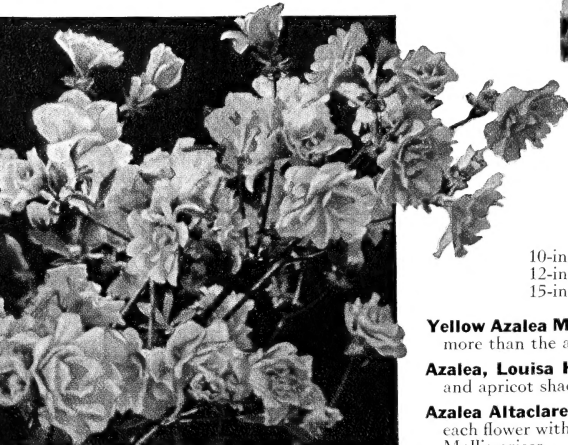

Carmen. Profuse blooming; true rose color.

Fedora. Very prolific; compact growing; deep pink.

Fireball. (Illustrated.) The finest true red hybrid.

Zampa. Deep pink; blooms two weeks later than the others.

AZALEA MOLLIS

They bloom in great masses, before the leaves develop, in mixed shades of yellow, reddish orange, apricot and salmon. All of our plants are seedlings grown from imported named varieties, insuring brilliant colors.

Yellow Azalea Mollis can be supplied as a separate color for 25c ea. more than the above prices.

Azalea, Louisa Hunnewell blooms in the softer terra-cotta, buff and apricot shades. Add 25c ea. to the above Mollis prices.

Azalea Altaclarensis. Deep orange-yellow, blended at the base of each flower with red, changing to bright yellow. Add 25c to above Mollis prices.

AZALEA YODOGAWA

A. yodogawa. (Illustrated above.) Very double lavender variety, which makes a low, compact plant.

A. poukhanense. Same color and type as Yodogawa, blooming much earlier, with single flowers.

A., Kurume Snow. A profuse, pure white, hose-in-hose type, which requires a protected spot.

A. ledifolia alba. Large, single white. Our strain is very dependable.

Prices for the 4 varieties above are the same as for Azalea Kempferi Hybrids. Available only in first 3 sizes.

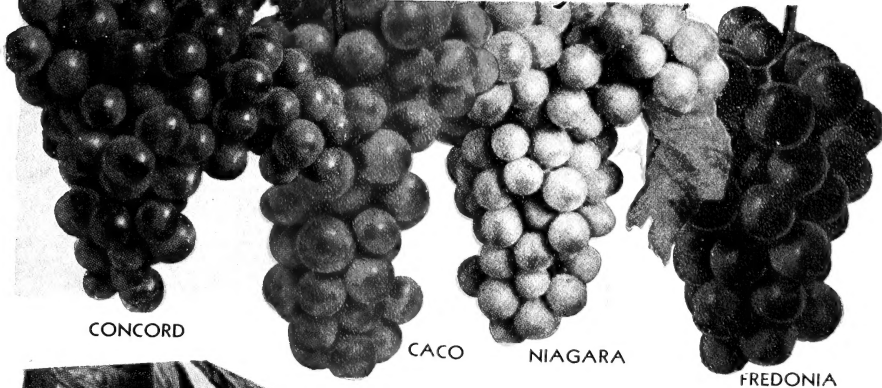

GHEENT AZALEAS

These hardy Ghent Azaleas are in their glory in early June, after the other Azaleas and Rhododendrons have gone, thereby extending the blooming season considerably. The most severe winter has never hurt buds or plants. They are sturdy and long lived; some are fragrant. Colors range from orange to soft pink, with pink predominating.

HUGE HYBRID BLUEBERRIES

A beautiful shrub A fine fruiting plant

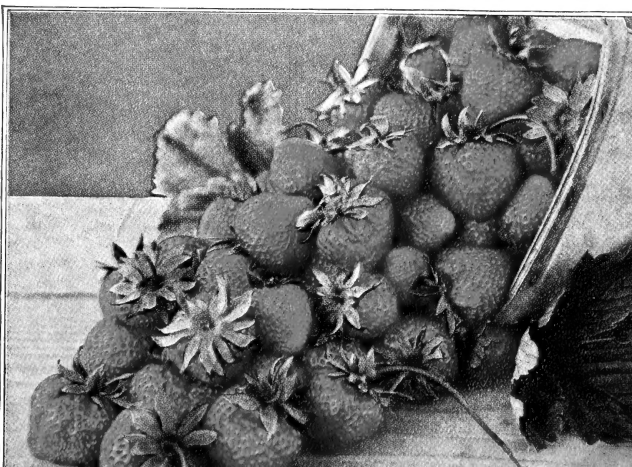

Spring brings clusters of bell-shaped flowers and in the summer the shiny green foliage is hung with great bunches of large edible blue berries. In the autumn the foliage turns bronze and winter gives you a colorful, twiggly shrub. We recommend the 3-yr. plants as being the most practical size, since they are beginning to bear fruit. Varieties should be mixed to insure a heavy setting of fruit.

We offer 4 varieties: Rubel, Rancocas, Pioneer and Jersey.

3-yr. plants, $1.15 ea.; 3 or more at $1.10 ea.; 10 or more at $1.00 ea.; 50 or more at 85c ea.

Grafted Hybrid Rhododendrons

Above is an actual photograph of a Hybrid Rhododendron planting which you can duplicate in your own yard. Rhododendrons have a double landscape value, since they hold their broad, evergreen leaves the year round and produce such a spectacular sight when in bloom. Our plants are grafted from stock originally imported from Holland. Do not confuse these with wild Rhododendrons. Contrary to general belief, the hybrids do not require shade. The most effective plantings are those in mass effect, combining all the colors for contrast and interest. Cultural directions come with your order.

The 12 to 15-in. plants seldom have flower-buds but make fine planting stock.
